HEALTHCARE VS. FINANCE “THROWDOWN”
2019

Kasey Nicholoff

Kasey Nicholoff is a Project Manager at MiHIN focusing on all things interoperability. After receiving a B.S. from Michigan State University (go green!), she gathered up about 5 years of project and program management experience; including intern and volunteer management, coordinating and conducting research projects in a virus ecology lab at MSU, and managing Health IT projects at MiHIN. Her focus now is around activities that advance statewide interoperability, including ensuring the success of our Interoperability Land platform as well as project management for MiHIN's Connectathon.
